RELEASE OF INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR STUDENT

Schools are permitted to disclose information on students if it has been properly designated as directory information. By law, directory information includes things that would generally not be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed, such as name, address, photograph, and date of birth. Directory information may not include things such as a student's social security number or grades. If a school has a policy of disclosing directory information, it is required to give public notice to parents of the types of information designated as directory information, and of the right to opt out of having your child's information so designated and disclosed. Also, secondary school students' names, addresses, and telephone numbers may be released to military recruiters or institutions of higher education. Parents and adult students have the right to deny release of directory information.
